Customer Reviews

One of the best plays I've ever had the honor of reading. I saw the movie version in high school and I immediately fell in love with it. The play is a lot more in depth with the characters than the film. A funny brilliant emotional story of a man trying to create a family and fall in love. Harvey Fierstein is one of the best modern playwrights of our time.

This play is so good how can you can't put it down. The characters and situation are realistic and compelling. It is a most have for any true actor or director.
